The Exhibition:

To be held for the fourth time in Hong Kong from Tuesday, February 28 - Thursday, March 1, 2012, this show is “the” proven, high quality maritime exhibition for the vital South China/Pearl River market.

This exciting event attracts large numbers of high quality vessel owners, operators, builders, designers, government personnel and maritime equipment suppliers for all types of ships and work boats.

The last China Maritime, in March 2010 – the third event to be staged in Hong Kong – launched with a Chinese lion dance and was described by organiser Neil Baird as " an outstanding success, marked in particular by the high quality and range of activities as well as the high calibre of exhibitors and attendees."
